RENT
INCREASE

Ontario sets provincial rent guidelines annually, published in August. Rent increase by landlords can only occur once every 12 months and 90 days written notice is required. These increases must abide by the annual provincial guidelines. If the landlord wishes to increase the rent beyond the guidelines, an application to the Landlord and Tenant Board must be filed to obtain permission.

Note: Rent increase rules only apply to an existing tenancy. After the tenant moves out, the landlord is able to increase the rent to whatever the market will bear.

RENT
INCLUDES

8. The following items, appliances, and services are included in the rent: (Check only those things that are included and provide additional information if required.)

DEPOSIT

10. [ ] A deposit is not required

OR

[ ] A deposit of $ _____ (not to exceed one month's rent) will be collected by landlord.

If the rent is collected monthly, one month's rent can be collected as deposit and if the rent is paid weekly, one week's rent can be collected at the beginning of the tenancy. The landlord can then pay the tenant 6 percent compound interest at the beginning of the next year and subsequent years. This deposit can be put towards the last month's rent.

Note: This is not a security deposit or damage deposit as security and damage deposits are not permitted in Ontario.

INSPECTION

An inspection of the premises and the preparation of a written inspection report signed by the landlord and tenant and prepared within 1 day of the start of the tenancy and within 1 day of the end of the tenancy is recommended. If an inspection report is prepared, it shall form part of the agreement.

[ ] A form of inspection report is attached to the agreement.

[ ] An inspection report is not attached.

REASONABLE
RULES

11. The landlord and tenant promise to comply with the conditions set out in Schedule "A." The tenant acknowledges receipt of the rules of the residential premises and residential property which are attached hereto as Schedule "___."

RENTAL
ARREARS

12. If the rent is unpaid one day after the due date, the landlord has the right to file an application to the Landlord and Tenant Board for rent arrears. If the tenant does not pay the rent within two weeks, eviction can occur.

NOTICE TO TERMINATE

13. All Notices to Terminate must be in writing. The tenant must give 60 days notice in writing to the landlord before the rent is due. If it is the landlord terminating the tenancy, depending on the situation, he or she must allow tenants the following notice periods:

- 14 days for non-payment of rent, 7 days notice for weekly or daily tenancy
- 2 months for landlord's use of property
- 20 days for cause or conduct

If the tenant breaches conditions of the Landlord and Tenant Board, the landlord can apply to the Tribunal without giving the tenant notice.

Note: A tenant may not end a fixed term lease until the end of the term. The landlord can only terminate the fixed term lease based on legitimate reasons in the legislation and cannot terminate solely based on the expiration of the fixed term agreement. If the tenant does not give notice to terminate at the end of the fixed term agreement, the lease automatically goes to month-to-month and the landlord cannot force the tenant to sign another fixed term lease. All conditions from previous lease will remain the same unless renegotiated between the landlord and tenant.
